

Wanted to make clear to all clients and ticketholders that Fundcrazr is going to produce weekly results!

Hello Dan,

- In these unique times of the Virus, everyday things change.
- Some states are wide open while others are back in lockdown.
- Wanted to make clear to all clients and ticketholders that Fundcrazr is going to produce weekly results!
- With or without games, our winning ticketholders will be paid weekly.
- NFL rule Article 19.2 of their constitution provides:
- “Regular season games may not be postponed unless said game cannot be played because of Act of God or because of a State, Federal, or local prohibition.”
- We truly believe that the NFL is going to try to have a full season with or without fans.
- In any event, Fundcrazr is prepared to produce winners for the desired weeks.
- Our method of producing scores will be with the use of historical data.
- We are planning to use varying combinations of data over the past 5 years of scores to generate a weekly score for a team.
- Of course this is the back up plan in case of no contests.
- We have a Force Majeure clause on our website that enables us to produce results in any fashion we deem fit.
- I was happy to share this good news with you and look forward to a strong season.
